Subject: Meeting with the EC in Brussels (eVote)

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

The European Commission is organising a meeting in Brussels on Friday 12th July to discuss the Policy White Paper on Quantum Technologies in Space, more specifically the Quantum Communication part, which was finalised during the QTSpace meeting in Munich of June 6th. The White Paper is part of QTSpace activities (<http://www.qtspace.eu/?q=whitepaper>). The official announcement of the meeting in Brussels arrived only today.

Several QTSpace members, who participated to the definition of the White Paper, have been invited. As such, I am writing for your approval to allow people to participate to the meeting as QTSpace members, with reimbursement as per standard COST rules (1 day meeting).

This new activity will not impact the other planned activities, most notably the forthcoming ESA-ESTEC workshop, as the budget allows for extra activities to be organised, as in the past years.

Deadline for voting: Tuesday 9th July 2019.

Thank you and kind regards,
Angelo
